OverView

The valley of Kashmir offers a woody abyss that surrounds the steep mountainous terrain. Known around the world for its unparalleled landscapes, the valley is located 300kms away from Jammu. Situated in the Himalayas, the clear blue skies reveal the snow-capped peaks that birth the streams and rivers. Home to native flora like pine, deodar, and chinar, it is a memory of a lifetime to preserve as you glide on a Shikara. The valley delights you with multi hues of nature communicated through lush green slopes, tender meadows, and prairie of vibrant flowers. The capital city of Kashmir-Srinagar is world-renowned for its handloom that produces woolen garments and Pashmina shawls. Srinagar also acquaints you with the local handicrafts and hand-carved wooden furniture made out of a walnut tree.
